DISTURBING WORSHIP .- Mr. Editor: morning I dropped into Dr. Spring's Church, Park Row, to listen to the Sermon, but was miserably disappointed. The clergyman was a fair speaker, but his discourse was rendered unintelligible by a continual howling of "Sunday Morning News!" "Sunday Morning News!" "Sunday Morning to "Sunday Morning Temporary Sunday Morning Temporary Sunday Morning to "Sunday Morning to "Sun ing News!" "Sunday Murkry!" "Sunday Morning Adis!" "Here's the Extry Sun!" from the very strong est lungs on every side of the Church. I do not think there was a single minute when these shrill, discordant, intermingled cries, did not rise above and drown the veice of the preacher. The whole service became an unmeaning num-mery, and the audience would have been more edified by sitting in silence. Now, sir, I wish respectfully to inquire if this is tight, and whether a whole congregation ought to be deis ign, and whether a whole congregator.
